Dear parents and carers

Exeter Maths Certificate (EMC) and Curriculum X (CX) Celebration and Talk from Dr Eugenia Cheng

In partnership with the University of Exeter, we have great pleasure in inviting Year 13 students and their parents and carers from Exeter Mathematics School (EMS), to an awards ceremony on Monday 22nd June to celebrate students' EMC projects and Curriculum X courses.

I will be welcoming guests and Professor Krasimira Tsaneva, Vice President and Deputy Vice Chancellor for Research and Impact and Professor of Mathematics at the University of Exeter, will speak briefly about the importance of EMS to the University of Exeter. There will be a graduation style award ceremony where students will be called to come and collect their certificates.

Eugenia Cheng Talk:

I am delighted to share that Mathematician and Author, Dr Eugenia Cheng will be joining us, sharing key things she has learnt from her varied career including how her love for Mathematics has remained constant throughout along with her dedication to sharing her passion for Maths with those who have been put off the subject.

Refreshments will be provided at the end, giving students and their parents/carers a chance to mingle and network with others.
